SNOW PLANS?

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@tindlenews.co.uk

AN action plan to deal with snow, ice and frost across the district could be developed by East Devon District Council (EDDC).

The council is set to discuss the plan during a cabinet meeting tomorrow. Part of the plan includes clearing key car parks and closing others.

The car parks that have been deemed "key" by EDDC include West Street in Axminster, Central car park in Beer, Dolphin Street in Colyton, Lace Walk in Honiton, Land of Canaan in Ottery St Mary and Harbour Road in Seaton.

In a report produced for the meeting it said: "The unusually severe and long lasting cold spell last year raised concerns about the council's ability to clear and make safe public areas, in particular car parks."

"The council owns and controls a number of public access areas, and areas for staff, which can be slippery in times of heavy frost or after ice and snow."

"During and after extreme snowfall the safety advice is generally that people should stay at home and not travel, unless essential."

"The main road networks will generally be gritted or salted as soon as possible but many ancillary areas may remain impassable and pedestrians may find the surfaces difficult. As such there will be reduced use of public areas in the early stages."

EDDC is also looking at the option of joining forces with Devon County Council (DCC) and when snow is predicted to be over most of the district for three days or more DCC could provide salt-grit at the entrance to key car parks and deliver a bulk supply of salt-grit at east Devon depots.

Other initiatives include purchasing extra bags of salt-grit and supplying Streetscene and parking civil enforcement officers with manual snow clearing equipment.

The report added: "Talks have been held with DCC on how we might work together more effectively."

"Clearly DCC's primary aim and obligation is to clear main highways across the county. However, they have indicated that they will endeavour to help with the supply of salt-grit both to our main depots and car parks."

Guide dog group held fundraising coffee event

MEMBERS of Axminster and District Guide Dogs staged their annual coffee morning in aid of Guide Dogs for the Blind Association on Saturday, October 29th.

The venue was Colyton Town Hall. Visitors could browse a number of stalls and meet guide dogs too.

There were three special visitors - four-month and six-month old guide dog trainee puppies, Preston and Dee and working guide dog Zia.

The event, organised by Jenny and Charlie Male of the Colyton Supporters of Guide Dogs was a great success and made £386.

Julie Richens, volunteer member of the Axminster and District Guide Dogs branch said: "We really appreciate the support of those who came to our event which included many stalls and a raffle, not forgetting the cakes, teas and coffees."

"Jenny Male and her supporters have organised this annual event for many years and we are very grateful to them and also to our own branch members who helped on the day."

"We all want a society in which blind and partially sighted people enjoy the same freedom of movement as everyone else and money raised will go towards this aim, including training and looking after dogs such as Preston, Dee and Zia."

"If anyone would like to know more about how they could help by puppy walking, boarding dogs or fundraising, please contact the Axminster branch on 01297 625785."

Library hours changed to suit the community

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A CONSULTATION exercise has resulted in new opening hours at Colyton Library, to become effective on Tuesday, December 6th.

As previously reported, hours were slashed earlier this year as part of a county-wide cost-cutting exercise.

Since then, The Friends of Colyton Library group has talked to library users and asked Devon County Council if opening hours could be changed to better suit the local community's needs.

For the time being, the library will continue to serve Colyton for 10 hours a week, but longer opening hours on Tuesdays and Thursdays mean that children and young people will have more opportunity to use the service after school.

The library will still open on Thursday and Saturday mornings, but will now be closed on Fridays.

Councillor Roger Croad, Devon County Council cabinet member with responsibility for the library service, said: "We greatly appreciate the involvement of the Friends of Colyton Library group in helping us to provide a library service that meets the community's needs."

"The library is still open for the same number of hours a week, so the change hasn't involved any extra cost, but the service is now available at times that are more convenient to our users."

Jane Dauncey, chairman of the Friends of Colyton Library group, said: "We are so pleased that the children will have more opportunities to use the library, and that the views of the people of Colyton have been taken into account."

The new opening hours for Colyton Library will commence on Tuesday, December 6th and are as follows: Tuesday 2.30pm-6pm, Thursday 10am-12.30pm and 3pm-5pm and Saturday 10am-12noon.

CARNIVAL PROFITS TUMBLE FROM 2010

Treasurer: financial climate to blame

COLYTON Carnival profits for 2011 were down compared to last year, but organisers say the amount of £8,294.51 is "fantastic" given the financial climate.

Last year's profit came to £10,006.21, but Colyton Carnival Committee treasurer Geoff Clode gave an upbeat report and said this year's profit is a fantastic achievement given the current financial climate.

He also praised everyone — organisations and individuals — who had supported the event in various ways.

The events through the week raised £4,209, carnival market brought in £4,757 and the street collection raised £1,621.

£1,960 was paid out in procession prizes, and overall expenses were up slightly.

In his report, co-chairman Steve Real stated that the week had started well with the Pinewood Derby, which was very well supported.

The events during the week went well and the carnival market, was again great fun and very successful.

The procession had gone well and he thanked the marshals for their help on the night.

He also thanked the royal party, which had attended all the carnivals on the East Devon circuit, which was a good advertisement for Colyton.

The Queen's Float did very well on the East Devon circuit, gaining numerous prizes.

Co-chairman Chris Solway thanked all the organisations for their help and support, without which there would be no carnival.

He also thanked the public for "putting their hands in their pockets" and helping to raise such a marvellous amount

It was agreed that a total of £3,000 would be given to the three main aims, which were outdoor furniture for the primary school, computer equipment for the new youth centre and the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Celebrations in Colyton. Each of these will receive £1,000.

Twenty-five per cent of the profit will be retained to run next year's carnival and the remaining sum of approximately £3,900 will be divided between the organisations on the committee, as set out in the carnival rules.

Colyton Carnival's annual meeting will be held on Tuesday, November 22nd starting at 7.45pm in St John Hall.

Anyone interested in the work of the carnival committee is welcome to attend.

Secretary Caroline Collier said: "We would love to see some fresh faces."

PULMAN'S VIEW CAMPAIGN FIGHT FOR FENITON

MP backs fight against 120 new homes in village

AS a campaign against plans to build more than 100 homes in Feniton gathers momentum, an east Devon MP has voiced his concerns.

As previously reported in Pulman's View, Strategic Land Partnerships has submitted plans to build 120 homes on land west of Ottery Road.

At the time of writing more than 170 residents had written to East Devon District Council (EDDC) to object to the scheme.

Concerns include potential flooding on the site, increased traffic and a lack of infrastructure.

In a statement sent to this newspaper, Neil Parish, Tory MP for the Tiverton and Honiton constituency, said: "I oppose any more homes being built in Feniton because of the grave threat of flooding.

"During the flooding that took place in the autumn of 2008 many bungalows in Feniton were engulfed with water and some elderly residents had to climb into their lofts in order to escape a flash flood.

"It was a very frightening experience for all concerned."

Mr Parish added: "A flood alleviation scheme should be built before any development in Feniton can be considered."

He said that the more roofs and asphalt drives there were in the village, the greater the risk of flooding.

Mr Parish continued: "One flood alleviation scheme is for ponds to be dug out to store flood waters and then be released through the village when heavy rain has subsided.

"The other solution is to put new pipes through the village. The problem with this is that there is a blockage by the railway bridge and this could cause flooding at the other end of Feniton.

"I also think it unwise to develop Grade Two agricultural land at a time when food production is so vital for both our agricultural industry and food security.

"I have written to EDDC with my objections to an unnecessary development in Feniton and now I have written a further letter objecting to the 120 homes."

Ottery town councillors have also attacked the application, claiming it would put extra strain on health, education and other services in the Ottery area.

Anyone who would like to comment on the proposal has until today (Tuesday, November 1st) to get their comments to EDDC.

Newspaper supports action

PULMAN'S View is proud to support Feniton's campaign against what is being described as 'an attack on a rural village' by developers.

The area has become a magnet to land developers all looking to increase the size of the small village.

With its good transport links, namely the train station, and excellent schools it is thought these, as well as the amount of land surrounding the village, are the reasons why people are looking to build new homes there.

This paper has heard from hundreds of concerned residents about plans to build on three plots around the village and last month they packed the village hall to air their feelings on the situation.

Residents have contacted Pulman's View to have their say on the most imminent application on land off Ottery Road and they have been objecting to the development — of more than 120 homes — in their hundreds on East Devon District

Council's planning website.

Parish councillors, district councillors and now MP Neil Parish — see the story above — have all waded into the planning war to air their concerns.

Homes for youngsters

THE official opening ceremony of eight new affordable homes in Uppottery took place on Friday, October 28th.

The homes are in Windgrove Close, and it is hoped they will encourage younger people to remain in the village.

Neil Parish MP performed the ribbon-cutting ceremony.

John Cornish, chairman of Uppottery Parish Council, said: "Affordable houses are very important in rural parishes to enable young people to rent or buy reasonably priced accommodation and stay locally and also to maintain the balance between the young and the elderly population in the villages."

Six of the homes will be available for rent with the remaining two being put up for shared ownership.

Hastoe Housing Association will manage the site.

Mr Cornish added: "Many thanks to Hastoe for making this project possible and thank you to Leonard Bartlett and family for making the land available."

Jill Elson, East Devon District Council (EDDC) cabinet member for sustainable homes and communities, said she welcomed the development.

She added: "The council's virtual team was formed 18 months ago to solve the ongoing problem of rural affordable housing in east Devon."

"The special focus of this team has resulted in the delivery of the Uppottery scheme and a number of other similar schemes across the district are in the pipeline."

Sue Chalkley, chief executive of Hastoe, said: "This is a landmark development because of the way in which the land was secured."

"We are very grateful to the parish council and also to EDDC ward councillor, David Key, who worked tirelessly to make this scheme work."

"The site he identified met with the local authority's emerging position statement, which meant the landowner could make this land available for affordable housing and have planning permission for some market homes on the same site."

"Without this creative approach the scheme would not have developed."

Roll out the barrel

THOUSANDS of people are expected to descend on Ottery St Mary on Saturday, November 5th as the town's annual Tar Barrel event takes place.

The spectacle attracts more than 15,000 people every year.

A spokesman for the event said: "The west country has a history of torchlight processions and burning barrels and Ottery was only one of many towns and villages following an annual tradition containing barrels which were rolled in the streets on November 5th each year.

"Somewhere along the line someone decided rolling was tame and carrying barrels on your shoulders was far more appealing and so the present tradition was born. Now Ottery is the only town in the country where people carry full-sized lighted tar barrels through the streets."

New Street Vets News November 2011

BONFIRE NIGHT IS APPROACHING....

Firework season is a very stressful time of year for many pets and owners – just under half of the UK dog population, and many cats, react to sudden loud noises. If ignored, the problem tends to get worse over time and can expand to include fear of other loud noises, such as thunder, and eventually everyday noises such as doors slamming.

Pets show varied stress reactions to firework noise - they can withdraw into themselves and hide, soil in the house, and sometimes become destructive or even harm themselves whilst trying to escape from the noise. Ask our vets for the most suitable product to help your pets cope with anxiety and particularly the firework season.

24 hour Emergency Cover

Pets, like humans, do not choose when to be ill and this may be the time you need your own vet, who knows you and your pet, the most. We feel it is important to ensure we continue to offer a locally based 24 hour service. Here at New Street Vets, we see our clients at our Honiton surgery for out of hours emergencies. We can also arrange home visits as required.

Many practices are now combining out of hours services and expect their clients to travel further afield to satellite practices to see unfamiliar vets.

Debris alarm

THE Beer Coastguard rescue team and Sidmouth Inshore Rescue Boat were tasked to take a closer look at debris floating off Littlecombe Shoot, near Branscombe, east Devon.

Both units were deployed just after 2pm on Tuesday, October 25th.

A Coastguard spokesperson said: "On scene, the side of a container was located which was towed to Branscombe and winched on to the beach for disposal."

But more calls followed and the spokesperson explained: "Beer Coastguards and Sidmouth Inshore Rescue Boat were tasked a second time to investigate a report of an object floating off Beer beach.

"On scene, the floor of a container (40 ft) was located — which was also towed to the beach for disposal."

Festive bazaar

MUSBURY Church is holding a Christmas bazaar and table top sale on Saturday, November 19th.

The event will be held in Musbury Village Hall from 10am until 1pm.

Items on offer will include books, cakes and a tombola.

Money raised will be donated to church funds. Refreshments will be served.

Dashboard fire

A FIRE engine from Axminster was despatched to deal with a dashboard fire in the town.

Firefighters were called to Silver Street just before 5.30pm on Wednesday, October 26th, and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "This was a small fire in the dashboard of the car.

"The fire was out on arrival, the crew inspected only."

Kennel plan is submitted to district council

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@tindlenews.co.uk

PLANS to create a kennel for 15 dogs and an animal rescue centre in Ottery St Mary have been submitted to East Devon District Council.

The application has been submitted by the animal charity ARC and a site has been located at Chineway Road.

In a planning document sent to the local authority a spokesman for Parasol Kennels, the agent working for ARC, said: "ARC Animal Rescue is a registered charity of 30 years' standing which re-homes around 100 dogs a year from east Devon and neighbouring areas.

"The charity provides a dual service, finding caring homes for unwanted pets and providing canine companions for families and lonely individuals.

"ARC is the only service of its kind between Lyme Regis and Exeter. ARC has no dedicated office accommodation. Rising costs mean it would be more commercially viable for the charity to have its own kennel accommodation for up to 15 dogs and to concentrate all of its activities on one site."

It is hoped the centre will create several full and part time jobs.

The planning document added: "It is proposed to employ two full time staff - the charity manager and the kennel manager - plus a number of part time staff. The kennel manager would be on site all day, with the charity manager on site as required. There will also be two part time staff to cover holidays and weekends.

"It is also normal to have a number of volunteers working in pairs during the daytime, including weekends. In addition a night watchman working from 6pm until 6am 365 days a year will provide security."

A noise assessment has been carried out by Soundguard Acoustics.

The assessment states: "Each sector of the kennel consists of an exercise area and a sleeping area for each dog. Due to the 360 degree view of Parasol Kennels the line of site between the dogs is obscured and approaching staff or visitors cannot be seen by all of the dogs at once. This controls the number of dogs barking at any one time.

"The inner sleeping section is dark with dimmable lighting that can settle the dogs and ensure that they are unaware when it is daytime. This has the advantage of controlling the activity, and the noise, of the dogs to specific hours."

Masons hand over donations at event

◆ AXMINSTER Masons handed over donations to worthy causes and local charities during their annual church service

AXMINSTER Masons gathered at the Minster church in Axminster on Sunday, October 23rd for their annual church service.

The service was led by the Reverend John Streeting and following the service the group gathered at the lodge rooms on South Street.

The annual service is also an opportunity for the group to hand out donations to worthy causes and local charities.

Charities who received donations included St Andrew's Church,

Chardstock, Axminster Care Services, Macmillan Cancer Support, British Limbless Ex-servicemen's Association, Chardstock Park Trust and ARC.

A spokesman for Axminster Masons said: "Masonry is very much about charity and traditionally the annual church service is an opportunity for the lodge to offer donations to worthy causes.

"Money raised during the 2010 year was made available and the cheques were presented by the Worshipful Master for the year, John Middleton."

Local B&B makes tourism award final

A BED and breakfast establishment near Axminster is guaranteed a bronze award in this year's Devon Tourism Awards.

But, with a bit of luck, Hedgehog Corner could end up with the top accolade — a gold award at this year's Devon Tourism Awards ceremony at Sandy Park on Wednesday, November 23rd.

Hedgehog Corner is situated just off the A35 on the B3165 Lyme Road.

In a letter to proprietor Joy Raymond, award organisers wrote: "We have now completed the final judging for the 2011 Devon Tourism Awards and I am delighted to confirm that Hedgehog Corner is one of the finalists in the Bed and Breakfast and Guest Accommodation of the Year category."

"The judging took account of your entry form, along with a combination of web searches, emails, telephone calls and/or visits, tastings, plus any available additional evidence."

Collection raises £853

MORE than £850 was raised for The Soldiers' Charity during a recent collection event in Honiton.

The collections took place on Friday, October 7th, and Saturday, October 8th outside the town's Tesco store.

The charity provides hardship relief, mobility assistance, education bursaries and holiday schemes.

In total £853.50 was raised.

Van destroyed

A FIRE crew from Seaton was called to reports of a van fire at Southcombe Terrace, Axmouth, in the early hours of Tuesday, October 25th.

The incident took place at around 3.40am and the fire crew used two breathing apparatus, one hose and one dry powder extinguisher to put out the flames.

The van was destroyed in the fire.

Hotel's wine club success

THE Fairwater Head Hotel, based on the Devon and Dorset border, near Axminster, launched its new wine club recently.

Over 40 wine drinkers enjoyed 28 every-day drinking wines from around the world including the UK, plus a selection of canapés produced to complement the wines.

The event was the brainchild of the hotel's proprietor, Adam Southwell, who said: "We were responding to requests from guests and visitors who wanted to try something they wouldn't normally consider. To take this a stage further we are planning a series of wine club events each themed in some way."

The next Fairwater Wine Club event is on Thursday, December 1st and this time everyone will be trying a selection of wines to enjoy with the Christmas lunch.

Team completes tough challenge

HONITON-BASED Nu-Heat Underfloor and Renewables entered a five-strong team for the 10-kilometre 2011 Commando Challenge at Woodbury Common last month.

The course includes obstacles like a sheep dip and a run back to the arena to the finish line.

But for account manager Alec Pace, the course presented little difficulty as he already trains as a reservist in the Marines.

This was made evident by the casual somersault he performed over the last obstacle just before the finish.

Nu-Heat designer William Newbury said: "The worst bit for me was the huge climb up to Woodbury Common – and the best bit was the nice long downhill stretch going back."

He added that a bonus for him was when a rather fetching young lady asked him for a piggy back across a pond.

Account manager and commando challenge team leader James Dingle said the best moment for him was the team coming across the finish line together.

Mike Blackshaw and Ciaran O'Connor from Nu-Heat's commercial division commented: "We never thought getting muddy could be so much fun"

The runners' raised sponsorship of more than £450 between them.

They ran one of the fastest times on the day being placed third for speed and 11th overall.

According to a company spokesperson, this year's commando challenge has raised well in excess of £250,000 for Devon Air Ambulance and Royal Marine charities.

Ambulance team offers new course

ST John Ambulance is urging businesses across Pulman's Country to ensure they are fulfilling fire safety obligations.

The charity has introduced a two-hour fire marshal training course.

Sarah Dawson, a fire marshal trainer for St John, said: "With bonfire night and Christmas festivities approaching, fire accidents may be more likely to occur because of extra lights and decorations in the workplace."

"Now is an ideal time to ensure your company has its fire safety covered."

"St John Ambulance offers specialist fire marshal training courses, as well as an online fire marshal calculator to help employers determine the number required for their business.

"While your employees are slowing down for Christmas, why not make the best use of their time by signing up for fire marshal, first aid or health and safety training?"

"With St John Ambulance health and safety training, you can be the difference between a life lost and a life saved."

"We spend a third of our waking lives at work. St John Ambulance courses are the safety net that protects millions of employees while they are in the workplace."

Thank you for the best fish and chips we ever had

EDITOR — Recently we visited Foley's Four C's restaurant in Seaton for lunch.

We both agreed the fish and chips were the best we'd ever had. When fish is this fresh and cooked so perfectly in crisp, dry batter, and chips likewise, soft and tasty inside, crisp and dry outside, it's the best meal in the world.

When it's not done to this standard it can be the worst.

The service was excellent and the pot of tea washed it all down a treat. Great value for money and fast efficient service.

What a difference from the recent experience we had at Lyme

Regis, where all we wanted to do was feed the seagulls with the same dish that seemed to have been cooked in old engine oil.

Well done Foley's, the man with the tattoos and his staff. Highly recommended.

Thumbs down to Sainsbury's

EDITOR — It's obvious to me now that money talked to EDDC so that the council granted planning permission for this over-sized Sainsbury's in Ottery St Mary.

I visited the place, not by choice, but because the elderly lady I take to do her weekly shop asked if we could so that she could see what it was like.

Parking was diabolical. My neighbour has some difficulty walking but I had to drop her at the entrance and then drive off to find somewhere to leave the car.

Both the areas adjacent to the store were full, with people sitting in their cars waiting for spaces to become available.

Mill Street was jam-packed from one end to the other and I eventually found a space in the furthest corner of the Canaan Way parking lot, which I had to pay to use and then walk back to the store to assist my neighbour.

While there, I looked for all the mothers and babies who were occupying their over-abundant parking places in the walled parking area but saw only three.

The store wasn't what I would call very busy either. However, there were staff milling about all over the place but the gaping holes in the shelves where stock had run out and had not replenished were a sight to behold.

Like my neighbour, I had intended to do my weekly shop, but I left with only £8 worth of goods and she spent only half of her usual weekly spend.

I must have misread something when the hoohah of the shop was in the headlines before planning permission because I thought Sainsbury's were to have some restrictions on what they could sell in order to protect existing Ottery shops.

However, there before my eyes was a huge butchery and fish section as well as a bakery.

I am of the hope that once the novelty of this place has worn off, the residents of Ottery St Mary will have the courage and the conviction to continue supporting the shops in Ottery that have served so faithfully for so long.

If they don't, the town will become similar to others with a host of empty shops.

Then we will see exactly how much those who granted permission for the store as well as Sainsbury's themselves REALLY care.

I for one won't be shopping there again.

Garage art is not answer to 'eyesore'

EDITOR — Alongside your front page article about Webster's Garage site 'Eyesore project', Pulman's View October 11th, I happened to see another picture showing the Axminster arts chairman with the artist.

Talk about kettle calling pot black - both men appear to be very busy.

I have only lived around here for two years and know nothing of the history of the site. It would be helpful to read about the reasons for it lying vacant and derelict for so long.

Spending £5,000 on a temporary cover-up is not an answer.

It would be better utilised as an open market or car park or even a skate park for the town's youngsters.

£15 million fuel payments for OAPs in the sunshine

EDITOR — the Warm Home Discount scheme, under which participating energy suppliers will grant a £120 rebate off electricity bills to some older customers this winter, is fine as far as it goes.

However, according to the BBC, five out of six major energy companies will limit the money they spend on this discount, giving it on a first-come, first-served basis.

After the fund has been exhausted even those who qualify will be turned down.

The Senior Council for Devon, the voluntary forum for the over-50s, believes this is the tip of the iceberg.

What about those many older and poorer people who do not claim the benefits they are entitled to - perhaps trying to live on their dwindling savings - and thus failing to qualify for the scheme? There is also the absurd situation of the UK Government spending £15 million a year on winter fuel payments for older expatriates, many of them living in such warmer places as Spain and Cyprus. This is apparently to comply with EU law.

Surely that £15 million would be better targeted at helping some of the poorest, most vulnerable people in Britain?

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

AT the request of the Rt Revd Michael Lewis, Bishop in Cyprus and the Gulf, all linked deaneries and parishes in Devon were asked to observe last Sunday, October 23rd as a Day of Prayer for the Province of Jerusalem and the Middle East.

The Bishop reminded us that his Diocese of Cyprus and the Gulf covers Oman, the Yeman, the seven United Arab Emirates, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Bahrain, Kuwait, Iraq and the whole of Cyprus. Worship is largely in English but in some locations the liturgy is in Arabic, Syriac-Aramaic, Tamil and Urdu.

In east Devon, Honiton Anglican Deanery is linked with the Chaplaincy at Dubai, and the local link is on 01404 45124.

In the week ahead east Devon is keeping the annual remembrance of the fallen in recent war by meeting first at local memorials on Friday, November 4th at 11am for two minutes' silence, and local schools are doing the same.

Then, on the Sunday, there will be Services of Remembrance in the majority of churches at 10.50am with rolls of honour read.

Beer and Seaton churches are joining again on Thursday, November 3rd at 11.45am at St Gregory's Hall, Seaton, for Little People's Prayers and Praise followed by coffee and light lunch.

St Gregory's, Seaton, Quiz Evening is at the church hall on November 3rd at 7.30pm.

Future events of interest include an international pianist, Antony Peebles, in concert at Colyton church on Saturday, November 19th at 7.30pm. Tickets cost £9.

Then on Friday, November 21st at 7pm in Branscombe church Dr Todd Gray will introduce his new book which features local churches. Call 01297 22815 for details.

For those with 2012 diaries the Christian Resources Exhibition will again be at Westpoint Arena, Exeter, on January 25th and 26th, opening at 10am daily.

New advice and legal issues on bats in churches is now available at <http://naturalengland.etraderstores.com/NaturalEnglandShop/TIN043>.

Pastor Darrell concludes this week by looking ahead. He said: "Every year, we take an ordinary box, wrap it in bright paper, fill it with inexpensive gifts like small toys, pencils, pads, toothpaste and then gather them with other similar shoeboxes.

"These are then sent to various parts of the developing world to ensure a child has some gifts to enjoy at Christmas. The whole event is called Operation Christmas Child, headed up by Samaritan's Purse.

"Over the years Kilmington Baptist Church has encouraged its congregation, friends, neighbours and schools to take part.

"If you would like to know more, email pastordarrell@xalt.co.uk or call 07837-447025.

Portrait of the artist as a younger man

AXMINSTER artist Ricky Romain challenged orthodox thinking about painting when he gave the October demonstration, Passion, Painting and Politics, to Seaton and District Art Society.

He was introduced by chairman Fred Slatter, who told members that the 2012 exhibition will be the society's 40th annual show and there will be an extra themed display.

Ricky told the meeting that, on his way to an appointment with a therapist in New York, he stopped to look at paintings in the gallery opposite.

"Everything stopped. Suddenly I felt I was among friends. I just knew I was a painter." He missed his appointment but was able to tell the therapist: "I don't need you any more or that kind of insight into who I am."

He started teaching himself how to paint, mostly from studying the work in art galleries. Having started in a fairly conventional way by painting landscapes, Ricky still keeps sketchbooks all the time. In his early work he explored his Jewish family roots and his work eventually came to demonstrate his sympathy for the human rights of outsiders including refugees and asylum seekers.

A professional sitar player who teaches classical Indian music at Plymouth University he allows music to influence his work and the projects he runs with many schools including the Axe Valley Community College.

The society's next demonstration will take place from 2-4pm on November 7th at the Methodist Church Hall, Valley View.

Southsea artist Kevin Dean will show how to achieve "Dynamic Images in watercolour and mixed media."

The story of the Orkneys

DOREEN Parris and Dorothy Miller invited Tom Coleman to Yacombe Tuesday Club's meeting on October 18th to show more films.

This time the subject was The Orkney Isles. Everybody imagined them to be gaunt, sheer rock faces, whereas they are actually low lying (apart from Hoy) fertile grasslands with lots of cattle grazing the land.

The Orkneys are made of red sandstone and the climate is warm because of the Gulf Stream. They have long summer evenings but very short daylight time during the winter.

About 5,000 years ago stone-age farmers habited the islands and there are many remains of their villages and farmhouses all over the land.

The islands were invaded by marauding hosts of Vikings from nearby Scandinavia. The Norwegian kings divided the islands into two parts and installed governors to oversee the north and south areas.

Many longhouses, in which people dwelt at one end, with the cattle at the other, are in evidence.

During both world wars Scapa Flow, the enclosed water between the islands, was a major shipping area. Italian prisoners of war were set to work and billeted on the islands, and one gifted prisoner decorated a Nissen hut as a church, painting the walls and ceiling with magnificent pictures which are preserved for posterity.

Elizabeth Freeman has organised next month's evening which will be revealed to all shortly.

Sophie tells the secrets of writing a best seller

POPULAR fiction writer Sophie King, one of several such successful authors to move to east Devon, regards persistence as the first quality to be cultivated by would-be professionals.

She was opening the new season of monthly lectures organised by the Devonshire Association's Axe Valley branch at the Peace Memorial Pavilion in Colyton. Sophie spoke to an attentive audience under the title How to Write a Best Seller.

She underlined the importance of persistence by looking back at her own early career when she wrote 10 novels and saw each of them rejected by publishers approached.

Only then did she create The School Run which was not only accepted but sold nearly 40,000 copies.

Publishers were alerted to her skills in imaginative observation and she has been able to relax a little, enjoy a second marriage and a home in Sidmouth.

Going back to her earlier life in and around London and the Home Counties, Sophie said she remembered that English was the only school subject she really enjoyed and mastered.

After taking her English degree, she found work as a journalist and a magazine feature writer.

For a time she was a Women's Own staffer where she honed her abilities in watching and listening to people, all-important for her future as a novelist.

Sophie went through what she called "eight easy stages" in putting together best-selling novels.

She starts with a plot and only then invents characters to propel the story and the dialogue they speak. Equally important, if not more so, was revision.

As a starter she was inclined to ignore this procedure. Now she feels obliged to revise a book four or five times.

This was clear in her last story The Wedding Party, which needed more revision than writing time, and was shortlisted for the annual Love Story of the Year prize.

Has her move to Devon made communication more difficult?

It is agreed that London remains the centre for publishers and agents and no doubt it helps to make good contacts before moving out to the country.

But Sophie considers that modern electronic aids ensure that writers no longer have to endure lonely lives.

Enjoying a second marriage, she has fulfilled another ambition, to live beside the sea.

Michael Butterfield is listed to give the November 9th Colyton talk to the Axe Valley branch.

His subject is Wolford Lodge near Honiton, the still Canadian chapel established by General Simcoe between 1798 and 1806.

Emily to debate to the nation at youth parliament

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@tindlenews.co.uk

THE deputy member of the UK Youth Parliament for Tiverton and Honiton, Emily Nicolle, 16, will have the chance to speak to the nation during a debate in the House of Commons on Friday, November 4th.

Throughout this week young people aged between 11 and 18 from across the UK will be heading to the House to debate five topics selected by their peers.

Emily said: "Young people need to be able to vote on what topics are debated in House because they will want to debate or watch debates on things that matter to them."

"What matters to adults might not matter to young people, and that's one of the reasons why university fees have always been a big topic at the UK Youth Parliament debates."

"Afghanistan was also highly debated last year."

"This was because many young people are affected by their parents, brothers or sisters going off to fight for their country and don't know how to deal with it."

"If young people couldn't choose what they debate on, then how would they be able to have their say?"

The debate will be broadcast on BBC Parliament.

No business like snow

HEMYOCK Parish Council is in the process of deciding whether or not to set up a voluntary self-help scheme for the winter.

The volunteers would be responsible for clearing snow and ice from roads and footpaths in the event of another harsh winter.

In order to implement the scheme, councillors will need to nominate a snow warden, who will be responsible for training all the village volunteers.

A spokesman for the parish council said: "The snow warden is the key point of contact between the parish council and Devon County Council."

"It is primarily a co-ordination role and specifically will be responsible for creating and maintaining a register of community volunteers, arranging basic training, ensuring all volunteers work within guidance and planning coordinating the local response."

Anyone interested in becoming a volunteer should visit www.hemyock.org or call 01823 680975.

The issue will also be discussed at the next parish council meeting tomorrow (Wednesday, November 2nd).

East Devon crime is down, members told

CRIME and anti-social behaviour across east and mid Devon has fallen according to figures released by the East and Mid Devon Community Safety Partnership.

When the partnership met recently members heard that total crime had decreased by almost nine per cent, from 7,924 offences to 7,223.

Superintendent Paul Davies, local policing area commander for east and mid Devon and chairman of the partnership, explained that the figures were good.

He said: "These figures are very encouraging and reinforce the fact that east and mid Devon are very safe places to live. It is not only the police service which has made such a positive contribution to these reductions but many of our partner agencies."

"These include the county and district councils, Devon Youth Service, Youth Offending Team and the fire service."

Chimney fire dealt with

A FIRE crew from Colyton was called to reports of a chimney fire in Musbury in the early hours of Monday, October 24th.

The incident took place just after 12.30am and crews used small tools, a thermal imaging camera and chimney rods to deal with the fire.

It is believed the fire started in a wood-burning stove.

Need a little help creating your perfect home?

Bewitching style, clever design 'tricks' and a selection of interior 'treats'.

Halloween may be over for another year but we could still take something from its style which is distinctly gothic-chic. Conjure a spook-tacular style using fashionable black and hints of silver. You'll have a room that's a definite treat and will be the envy of visiting spirits!

Halloween's a celebration of the darker side of life - where witches and ghosties abound and homes are eerily lit by the glow of orange pumpkins.

But while black clothes, drapes and trick or treat accessories are only for one scary night a year, you could be brave and take inspiration from this 'spook-tacular' style and really embrace the power of black for a more lasting, striking effect.

Black, according to interiors specialists, is back on the decor menu as we seek spaces that not only look luxurious but dramatic.

Some designers are even flirting with the gothic style and featuring that ultimate haunting image, a skull, on new ranges of upholstered black furniture and wall coverings.

"For a long time black's been associated with angst ridden teenagers and funeral parlours," says Alan Hughes director of the Inchbald School of Interior Design, "but recently it's started to find favour again as a classy, decadent choice."

"People generally are losing their fear of strong, dark colours because over the last few years they've become accustomed to the trend for more powerful shades and vibrant pattern in the home. So black's return is the natural next step."

And, he points out, that black can be used in many ways - by taking an elegant Art Deco approach, following the hugely popular monochrome fashion or adopting a more funky, chic look.

Black, monochrome and rich almost black-brown is a significant trend this winter agrees Fionnuala Johnston, Design Coordinator at B&Q.

"Our bestsellers at the moment are bold black-based statement wallpapers with accent colours so the effect's not too dominating," she says. "Team those with a rich mix of sumptuous, luxury fabrics in different textures, or a combination of rich cream set against the dramatic black for stunning room."

For added glamour, she suggests using luxurious black velvet for throws, bedspreads or cushions, creating shine and glitter with sleek chrome lighting or black nickel lamp bases, and adding accessories such as a glossy black rug and a mixture of black and metallic effect cushions.

So continue the fun and create rooms with bewitching style and use clever design 'tricks' and a selection of interior 'treats'.

COMMUNITY groups across east Devon have donated more than 1,000 items to a new homeless service in Honiton.

Gissage House can accommodate up to 20 homeless people with east Devon links.

The centre is operated by Independent Futures, part of the Devon and Cornwall Housing group. It provides temporary accommodation and access to support networks, including education, training and employment opportunities.

Hazel Evans, of Seaton Mothers' Union, visited Gissage House to deliver food, blankets, clothing and kitchen equipment.

Several years ago Mrs Evans and her husband Ray were made temporarily homeless when a fire wrecked their home. She said: "I know what it's like to be homeless. The only possessions I had were the clothes I was wearing. I have real empathy for people in this situation and feel privileged to help them."

Mary Casey, of Seaton's FREEdom Café, also visited the accommodation to donate £50 on behalf of the café.

Gary Brown, Independent Futures general support team manager, said: "To reach a magical milestone of 1,000 donations really demonstrates the strong community spirit that exists locally. We've received everyday essentials from food to clothing."

"The new service will provide homeless people with vital time and support to regain control of their lives."

TONY JACKSON

UK muntjac wreaks chaos

THEY'RE small, alien and spreading like wildfire! They are, of course, Chinese or Reeves muntjac, the little deer which is considered to be the most primitive of the many species of muntjac found in Asia.

Two more species have been discovered in recent years, both in the mountains of Vietnam, one big and one small.

The giant muntjac was first recorded in 1994 and is well over twice the size of other recorded muntjac species, with adult males weighing up to 110 lbs, while around the same time the Truong Son muntjac was discovered, weighing in at an average of 33lb.

'Our' muntjac, the Chinese variety, weighing around 30lb to 40lb, was introduced to this country by the 11th Duke of Bedford at Woburn.

He had earlier tried to establish the larger Indian muntjac but these animals proved to be quite aggressive and when, so the story goes, the Duke's favourite dog was killed by one of these deer, he ordered a total eradication, substituting them a year later with the smaller, more docile, Chinese variety.

Today, muntjac are spreading at an alarming rate. The core centre is the Midlands, the southern counties and across to Norfolk, with isolated pockets now appearing on the Welsh borders, while there have been sightings in Gloucestershire, Cumbria, Yorkshire and Cornwall.

Enjoying close proximity to man, this small deer is now infiltrating urban areas and any areas of country offering thick bramble thickets and deep cover, while railway embankments, used and unused, are increasingly being occupied. Game shoots, with woodland offering a good understorey, are popular while, unafraid of man, muntjac will raid gardens and are virtually impossible to deter.

Excellent jumpers, if they cannot go through a fence or under it, they will simply surmount it. They have a taste for flower beds and vegetable gardens and are also highly destructive to newly planted forestry.

Their presence is also having a detrimental effect on the environment. Browsing at ground level, muntjac can quickly destroy areas used by ground-nesting birds, small mammals and invertebrates. Bluebell woods have been degraded and fresh spring growth is swiftly destroyed.

Another major and growing problem is road traffic accidents. Currently, there are around 42,000 annual traffic accidents attributed to deer, a third of which are caused by muntjac.

Roadside verges often hold attractive grazing and in areas of high density the traffic toll is considerable. Small they may be, but hitting a 40lb deer at speed can wreak havoc.

Currently deer stalkers are doing their utmost to bring a measure of control to the situation, but it is unlikely that these deer will be contained or reduced to manageable numbers, particular as they give birth throughout the year and a doe can breed from the age of seven months, producing a single fawn after seven months.

Until recently the West Country remained relatively untenanted by these deer, but reports of sightings have been coming in over the past decade or so and there is little doubt that this little deer is soon likely to establish itself in our area on a substantial scale.

It would be of great interest to hear from any readers who think they may have seen a muntjac. Small, pig-like with a humped back, they are distinctive and far removed from the graceful roe deer and, of course, bear no resemblance to sika or fallow.

Incidentally, muntjac, in my opinion, are top of the culinary list where venison is concerned and I have always considered that the smaller the deer, the better the taste! So, if you are offered a haunch of Chinese muntjac, don't hesitate. It will melt in the mouth!

Win equine fair tickets

PULMAN'S View has teamed up with the South West Christmas Equine Fair to give away 10 family tickets to the event, on Saturday and Sunday, December 3rd and 4th.

International three-day event rider Mary King will take centre stage at this year's fair, which takes place at Westpoint, Exeter.

This mainstay of the equine calendar, which enters its 16th year in 2011, attracts over 10,000 visitors each year and offers them the chance to see some of the biggest names from the equestrian world in action. Mary King is one of the most inspirational and successful women in three-day eventing and really needs very little introduction.

A world-class gold medalist, five times Olympic rider, winner at Badminton Horse Trials amongst others and an award winning horse breeder.

Mary did not grow up in a horsey family, but she managed to persuade her mother to lead her on the vicar's horse Silver around the village.

Inspired by a visit to Badminton Horse Trials with Axe Vale Pony Club at the age of 11, she realised she wanted to become a professional three-day-event rider and worked tirelessly on a butcher's delivery round, chalet girl, gardener and cook, anything to fund her career.

The South West Christmas Equine Fair will see Mary providing two educational and entertaining demonstrations on each show day in the Supreme Equine Arena.

Visitors will be given hints and tips that can be used by riders of all levels in order to progress their own ability.

The event will feature international show jumper Philip Spivey and Western Reining Champion Shane Borland, stallion parades, pony club horse and hound show jumping challenge and junior show jumping competition, the Strictly Showing competition and a beautiful breed society area.

The show also hosts a dedicated shopping village featuring over 150 companies in the main hall and annexe offering everything for horse and rider.

Tickets are already on sale with a discounted rate to those booking in advance.

Details are available by visiting www.contour.uk.net or calling 01749 813899.

You can also keep up to date with everything happening at the show by joining the fair's Facebook group. For exhibitor enquiries, call 01392 421500.

Blistering barnacles! It's Tintin

Dolphin Street Colyton

THE ADVENTURES OF TINTIN (PG)

WRITTEN and drawn by Belgian artist Georges Remi under the pen name Herge, Tintin first sprang to life on the page in 1929 in the gung-ho adventure Tintin in the Land of the Soviets.

The plucky reporter with the distinctive ginger quiff has travelled the world and even to the moon, uncovering dastardly deeds with intrepid pooch Snowy by his side.

Now, thanks to Oscar-winning filmmakers Steven Spielberg and Peter Jackson, the iconic character enters the 21st century using state-of-the-art motion capture, which translates actors' movements into the performances of incredibly detailed digital characters.

The Adventures Of Tintin: The Secret of the Unicorn is the opening salvo of a proposed trilogy, amalgamating the plots of The Crab With The Golden Claws, The Secret Of The Unicorn and Red Rackham's Treasure.

Spielberg directs the first film and it's a breathlessly entertaining romp, littered with eye-popping action set-pieces that would simply be unthinkable, not to mention astronomically expensive, as live action.

A dizzying motorcycle chase through the winding alleys of a Moroccan marketplace is accomplished in a single take and Captain Haddock's penchant for booze provides the hilarious spark for an explosive biplane flight.

A terrific animated opening, reminiscent of Catch Me If You Can, introduces us to reporter Tintin (Jamie Bell), who buys a model ship and is plunged into a centuries-old mystery involving Ivan Ivanovitch Sakharine (Daniel Craig).

Ivan asks Tintin to name his price for the boat, but the reporter refuses to sell, sensing the wooden vessel is far more valuable than it first appears.

Sure enough, a cryptic conundrum lies within, revealing that "only a true Haddock will discover the secret of the Unicorn." Blistering barnacles!

Assisted by Snowy, Tintin searches for more clues, meeting Captain

Haddock (Andy Serkis), whose family history holds the key to the mystery of a cursed shipwreck.

This film is a hoot, and the script, co-written by Peter Moffat, Edgar Wright and Joe Cornish, delivers some big laughs such as when Captain Haddock reveals that one of his crew has no eyelids.

"Aye, it was a card game to remember!" growls the salty sea dog.

However, all of Spielberg's directorial brio and the gorgeous visuals cannot distract from the lack of characterisation.

The film relies entirely on nostalgia, providing no back story about Tintin or any of his friends and foes, other than what is pertinent to the mystery of the Unicorn.

Like most thrill rides, we're giddy during the film, caught up in the action and derring-do but once the film ends, there's that nagging feeling that something is amiss.

Perhaps Tintin will unearth more in the second film, pencilled for release in 2013 with Jackson at the helm.

New saloons from BMW

THE next-generation 3 Series saloon has been unveiled by BMW.

It is loosely the same shape as the old one, but with tweaked styling especially around the front and rear light clusters.

Although the new car is bigger than the model it replaces, the biggest changes come under the skin, where a forthcoming expansion of BMW's EfficientDynamics technology will see as many as eight 3 Series models dipping below 120g/km by March 2012, when more engines are added to the four that have just been announced.

Every engine will be turbocharged for the first time.

The two petrol models are the four-cylinder 328i, developing 242bhp, and the six-cylinder 335i, which pushes out 302bhp.

The available diesels at launch are the standard 320d, a 181bhp two-litre unit that emits 120g/km of CO₂, and the 320d EfficientDynamics, which costs the same but has less power, taller gearing and a CO₂ output that has been squeezed down to 109g/km.

Six trim levels will be offered, which is more than ever before, to reflect BMW's perception that buyers want more personalisation possibilities these days. ES and SE can be ordered straight away, with M Sport coming next year.

New versions called Sport, Modern and Luxury will also come later.

The car is 93mm longer than the 2011 model, but 6mm narrower, excluding the mirrors. Its wheelbase is 50mm longer too. It's pushing the boundaries of what can be called a "compact" luxury saloon, and rear leg-room has increased by only 15mm.

When all the new models are available next March, prices will start from £24,880 on the road for the 316d ES, but for now the cheapest options, the 320d duo, start at £28,080.

Hyundai has released the full details for its new Veloster coupe, the only car available in its class to have a "1+2" seating layout for easy access to the rear seats.

It will cost from £17,995 on the road for the most basic four-door without Blue Drive efficiency-boosting technology, rising to £21,745 for the range-topping Veloster Sport with Hyundai's first dual-clutch transmission.

CO₂ outputs are typically in the 140s, but the version equipped with Blue Drive dips to 137g/km. All models of the Veloster will sit in insurance group 16E.

While every Veloster comes with the same 138bhp petrol engine, there are two models to choose from. The normal model has 17-inch alloy wheels, while the Sport increases that to 18-inch wheels with colour inserts.

The Sport also gains black leather upholstery with a heated front seat, a panoramic sunroof, cruise control, keyless entry with engine start/stop button and alloy pedals.

Both models will have a seven-inch screen allowing easy use of the in-car media capabilities. Tony Whitehorn, managing director, Hyundai Motor UK, says: "The new Veloster will bring added emotional appeal to the Hyundai brand."

"It showcases a sleek and distinctive design in an innovative three-door coupé form that provides practicality, and individuality as well as dynamic performance."

"It offers a bold new colour palette and with the choice of bigger wheels with colour inserts, panoramic sunroof and the option of red leather interior on the higher Sport trim level, customers can stand out from the crowd."

"We expect the Veloster's unique combination to re-shape its segment and attract new buyers to the brand."

● A Birmingham-built vehicle has won a best executive and luxury car award.

The Jaguar XF was voted the best executive and luxury car of the year by the What Car? company.

Alongside this, the Sunderland-built Nissan Qashqai was voted Used Car of the Year. The Qashqai also took the best used family car prize.

What Car? editor-in-chief Chas Hallett said: "All the teams involved in the production of both the Nissan Qashqai and the Jaguar XF should be really proud of their achievements."

"The quality of these cars was great when they were new, and three years later they make unbeatable-value used buyers."

HONITON RUNNERS

Julia comes first despite not racing for three years

IT wouldn't be many people's idea of a fun day out to run up and down the hills on Exmoor.

But that's just what 24 Honiton Running Club members and friends chose to do on Sunday, October 23rd to take part in the Stagger and Stumble.

Both races provide a challenging offroad course, using the steep and varied terrain of the moor and both boast breathtaking views.

The distance of the Stagger is 16 miles with total ascent of 3,627ft.

The route takes runners from Minehead to the highest point on Exmoor, Dunkery Beacon, and then back to Minehead.

Although the Stumble is only seven miles, this is a race not to be taken lightly. It, too, has tough climbs and descents, and runners are told not to underestimate this race.

The two races begin together and split after about three miles so first home from the group was Gary Phillips in the Stumble coming 13th overall in 57min 48sec.

He was followed by his wife, Julia, who hasn't raced for about three years, but still came first in her category.

John Burgess was pushed by Pippa Westall with Pippa coming in just 10 seconds behind. John also managed first in category.

The Stumble was won by former Honiton member James Denne in 43:57.

Stumble results: 13th Gary Phillips 57:48, 20th Howard Bidmead 59:36, 24th Julia Phillips 1 hour 1 minute, 36th John Burgess 1:06, 38th Pippa Westall 1:06, 43rd Nick Bradley-Carter 1:08, 62nd Jennie Sleeman 1:14, 64th Olivia Higginson 1:14, 69th Clare Melbourne 1:16 and 90th Tracey Strawbridge 1:21.

First home for Honiton in the Stagger was Ben Stone. Richard Harris was next back having had another great run and he was followed by Bruce Strawbridge, who knocked two minutes off last year's time.

Stagger results: 17th Ben Stone 2:15, 34th Richard Harris 2:25, 36th Bruce Strawbridge 2:27, 54th Richard Harvey 2:33, 66th Steve Davey 2:37, 88th Vernon Gillard 2:42, 89th Julie Payne 2:42, 93rd Judy Davey 2:43, 94th Steve Boyes 2:45, 101st Ceri Oak 2:47, 103rd Helen Davy 2:47, 157th Warren Oak 3:01, 167th Greg Axsel 3:07, 185th Tom Bornt 3:15. There were 234 finishers.

HONITON RUGBY

Steel by name and steel by nature in tough battle

Honiton U9 4
Tiverton U9 - 5

HONITON took on Tiverton at home under the captaincy of Sam Steel.

Tiverton got the first try of the match, but Honiton soon responded with tries from Finley Keywood and Sam Steel.

Honiton battled hard and defended well, and then Keywood and Steel broke through Tiverton's defence to claim another try each.

Man of the match went to Miles Paver.

Honiton U10 3
Tiverton U10 3

HONITON bounced back from a heavy defeat with an encouraging display against a well-drilled Tiverton side.

After the visitors took an early lead, Honiton replied with a brace of tries from Rhys Phillips.

Tiverton responded with an equalising try of their own before Lewis Glead gave the home team the lead for a second time.

In the dying seconds of the first half Tiverton tied the scores at 3-3.

Although no further tries were scored, both sets of coaches agreed that it had been a terrific match.

Owen Willis was named man of the match for his titanic effort at the break down.

Tiverton U11 22
Honiton Musketeers 38

THE Honiton boys got their first away win of the season at Tiverton on Sunday.

A much better start to the game saw them leading 31-12 at half time, a hat-trick for Jacob Wright and a brace from Guy Maynard doing the damage.

The second half was a much closer affair, but Honiton finished strongly with a great team try finished by Ryan Woollacott.

Conversions from Wright (three) and Woollacott (one) made up the points.

Man of the match was awarded to the whole team, who all played their part in a very entertaining game.

Honiton U12 63
Tiverton U12 7

HONITON travelled away to Tiverton on a fantastic sunny morning with all players remembering to put their clocks back.

Honiton scored first with a try from Sam Phillips. Tiverton struck back immediately to level the scores.

Honiton then replied with seven more tries.

Sam Phillips getting his second, Jack Katene, Ethan Seymour and Nathan Keywood scoring on his debut, Harry Todd (two) and Ben Phillips (two).

Conversions were kicked by Ben Phillips (two), Tom Young (two) and Jack Katene (five).

Man of the match went to the whole team for some outstanding team work. Honiton would like to congratulate Tiverton who never gave up until the final whistle despite the score line.

AXMINSTER GOLF

Men keep the spoon

IN FINE golfing conditions, the Seniors produced some excellent scores in the second round of the Winter League.

The holders and first-round winners, B Dale and R Grove, looked to repeat the feat but were pipped at the post by T Strong and B Flay.

Both teams amassed 39 points but on countback, Tony and Bob were the winners on the day.

Bang on the heels of the leaders were the next two teams both scoring 38 points.

Third place on countback went to Bob Berry and Dave Sammons, with Brian Wilkes and Sid Pember just missing out.

There were four twos - Bob Flay, Rob Heard, Clive Davie and Pete Motson.

The Wooden Spoon competition between the ladies and the main club resulted in a half, allowing the men to retain the wooden spoon, complete with blue ribbon, for a further year.

Nine-man Crickets lose in dying minutes

THE Ottery Crickets Men's first team game last week didn't go their way as they lost 3-1 to Bridgwater.

This match between two teams at the same end of the table was a competitive challenge that Bridgwater shaded in the last 10 minutes of a fast and furious game.

Bridgwater scored first from a flowing move down the left after 15 minutes. Crickets equalised within five minutes from a well worked short corner, Jim Harris pushing home from short distance.

It was level pegging until Crickets lost two players, including their left back to his second yellow of the game for a technical offence in the 23rd minute.

This handed the advantage to Bridgwater, which they took gratefully. Some rapid passing saw them sweep the ball home after a great first save from the excellent Neale Flood in goal.

The visitors' third killed off the game and any chance of a recovery with only a few minutes to go.

Next week Crickets play Exeter University away on Saturday, November 5th. Expect fireworks.

● The ladies first team played a friendly against ECVH seconds, with a final score 4-1 to the Crickets.

ECVH scored early in the first half, but Crickets equalised before half-time from a short corner with a great strike from Karen Dutton.

Crickets then dominated the game, and after another perfect short corner strike from Jessica Williams were in the lead.

Jess scored another soon after, and by the final whistle Crickets had slotted another past the ECVH goalkeeper, who had a great game, saving many shots that Crickets fired at her.

Player of the match went to Alice Stafford, for great support from the defence.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

GRAHAM Newton and Dominic Schneiders ran the Stickler Three Peaks Challenge recently.

It's a tough race as the route takes in more than 1,500ft of vicious climbing over the peaks of Okeford Beacon, Hod Hill and Hambledon Hill.

Graham thoroughly enjoyed his run in the damp conditions and was pleased to finish in 1.25.24, just a few seconds off last year's time. He came second in the men's over-60 category.

Dominic was slightly quicker, completing in 1.23.10, a tad slower than last year.

Iceland is a long way to go to run in one of a 5K race series, but that is exactly what Lesley Adams did this week.

She ran the Elli race that starts close to the small old bridge over Ellidaa River in Reykjavik. Lesley finished 38th out of 70 in 29:50.

Closer to home, Harry Moore and Steve Atkins ran the annual eight-mile RNLI fundraising walk from Hangman's Stone to Seaton for the second time in two weeks.

Despite it being muddier underfoot, the duo were 10 minutes quicker than before, completing in 2:05.

The Yarmcombe Yomp, a five or 10-mile cross country event, takes place on Saturday, November 5th at 10.30am. Enter on the day at Yarmcombe Village Hall (£8 juniors and £10 seniors, plus an additional £2 if not an affiliated to a running club).

It's almost all off-road alongside the River Yarty then a long climb up to wooded footpaths along a ridge then a long, fast descent back to Yarmcombe. Minimum age 16 for the five mile, 17 for the 10 mile.

Flamingos fly to top of the table

AFTER six weeks, only Flamingos remain unbeaten and now have a four-point lead at the top of the table thanks to wins over OPG by 28-23, and a close fought win over Bo-Peeps, who did lead for a while, by 33-31.

OPG and Wasps both faltered with OPG losing to Flamingos but then bouncing back with a comfortable win against bottom side Hi Q by 44-16, leaving Hi Q still looking for their first win and five points adrift at the foot of the table.

Wasps had a close call when they played Hi Q but held on to win by 32-24, but then suffered a defeat at the hands of Uplowman by 36-22, and this after Uplowman had gone down to 36-28 defeat at the hands of Bo-Peeps.

In the two weeks Flamingos had picked up all six points, whilst OPG, Wasps, Uplowman and Bo-Peeps had all picked up four points whilst Hi Q picked up a solitary point from their two games.

ANOTHER plucky performance by the Tigers failed to get them any reward as they narrowly lost this match.

Axminster started well with goalkeeper Chris Higgs making an excellent save from John Rimmer's penalty awarded in the fifth minute.

That let-off spurred Ray Self's side into action and a well-taken goal from Jamie Chamberlain earned them a 1-0 lead at half-time.

But the home side picked up the pace after the break and Rimmer atoned for his earlier miss with a hat-trick.

Lee Griffin gave the Tigers hope as he made it 3-2 in the 85th minute but the home side held on to deny Axminster a point.

Credition 4
Ottery St Mary 2

Otters new manager Mel Coombs, who has replaced David Weeks after he resigned following a poor start to the season, saw an improved performance that will give him some hope for the future even if it was yet another defeat for the east Devon side.

Jake Allen wiped out Credition's early lead but the home side hit back to lead 3-1 before Chris Belston gave the Otters hope as he made it 3-2. But any hopes of salvaging a draw were ended when Credition scored a fourth in the closing minutes.

FRESHDEVON AND EXETER LEAGUE

11th win on the trot from Tipton the goal machine

TIPTON St John Reserves maintained their unbeaten start to the new season with their 11th successive win to tighten their grip on the top of Division Eight.

While the first team suffered a surprise 1-0 defeat at home to Exmouth Amateurs, Mike Dawe's second string continued their remorseless start with a 7-1 hammering of Newtown in their biggest win of the season to date.

"It is going really well at the moment with 10 wins in the league and one in the cup but there is still a long way to go this season," cautioned Dawe.

By KEVIN FAHEY

sport.pulmans@tindlenews.co.uk

Tipton spread the goals around with seven different scorers – Nick Roberts, Barry Wood, Curtis Winchcombe, George Biggs, Chris Surridge, Eddy Kerry and Johnny Beer.

Feniton were also in the goals at the weekend with a 7-1 win at Culm United, meaning player-manager Mark Kingdon's side have now scored 20 goals in their last three games.

"It is really coming together and the lads are playing some great football," said Kingdon, whose side have now climbed to third spot.

Star of the show was local player Charlie Selley, who scored four of the goals, with further strikes from Paul Dowling and Rob Pfeiffer.

In the Premier Division two goals from Cameron Vere and one from Richie Durrant saw Seaton Town stay top with a 3-1 win over Thorverton.

Beer Albion had a good 2-0 win at Budleigh Salterton, with Matt Rowson and Justin Adkin scoring for Phil Crabb's side.

Axmouth United will be glad to see the back of Newtown IIIs after suffering their third successive defeat in as many weeks against the Division Five leaders — twice in the league and once in the cup.

"The margin between the two sides yet again was minimal in what was another pulsating game of football between two evenly matched and good sides," said Axmouth manager Laurie Forino.

"But it was the visitors who stole the points in a 3-1 win scoring two inside the last nine minutes to maintain their impressive 100 per cent record in all games."

Charlie Clark had already hit the post before firing in the equaliser from Jamie Hughes' cross just before half-time.

"All the boys played well today but Chris Bowles earned man of the match award," added Forino.

In Division Six Awliscombe

United continued their bright start with a 2-0 win over Chagford, leaving them just two points and two places off top spot.

"It has been a good start to the season but unfortunately we have a history of falling away after Christmas so we are not getting too carried away," said manager Martin Wilmington.

"We need to stay up there and then kick on in February and March."

Club secretary Peter Nelson opened the scoring with Nick Trenchard sealing the points in the closing minutes.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

Chard bounce back with a 4-2 win

AN astute tactical switch by manager James Govier helped Chard United bounce back and cement their lead at the top of Division Three after a 4-2 win at Luso-Chard.

Thumped 6-2 by Hawkchurch in the Division Three Cup the previous week, Govier's side were trailing 2-1 after Lee Hames' early lead was wiped out by Igor Costa and Richardo Silva and in danger of slipping to their first league defeat of the season until the boss made his move.

"We were having trouble coping with Luso's quick striker so I switched our centre forward Ricky Anderson to defence with Dan Scriven moving up front," said Govier.

"Ricky is very quick and we had no trouble from Luso's player after that. The move worked well and Ricky was our man-of-the-match."

Ian Wells-Burr lobbed the goalkeeper from 40 yards to equalise and further goals from Rob Milsom and Scriven secured the points to put Chard United five clear of Waytown Hounds.

"We are back in business," added Govier.

In Division Two, Chard Rangers leapt to the top after toppling previous leaders Crewkerne Rangers 2-1 with goals from Wayne Long and Luke Chubb. Crewkerne's goal came from Tom Broom.

Millwey Rise stayed top of Division One even though they were involved in the league cup, booking their spot in the semi-finals against Lyme Regis Reserves at Cloakham Lawns at the end of the month after beating Shepton Beauchamp 1-0, thanks to a Sam Dibbling strike.

"Sam also hit the post, Michael Knight hit the crossbar and Terry Emmett the post so it could have been more," said Millwey boss Shane Featherstone.

Lyme Regis Reserves' goals in their 6-0 drubbing to Norton Athletic came from Ben Strong, Kieran White and two apiece from Ryan Fifer and Jack Durrant.

In the other Division One Cup semi - final on November 26th Forton Rangers face Barrington at Forton Lane.

Meanwhile, in Division One, Perry Street Reserves handed Misterton their first league defeat of the season as Ben McCaffery scored twice in a 4-1 win. Kev Rowson and Kurt Ashmore also scored.

In the Premier Division, Farway United returned to winning ways after three defeats with a hard-earned 2-1 win over Perry Street. Ben Williams and Bradley King scored while Ernie Stobbs missed a penalty.

"We played pretty well but our goalkeeper Phil Woodley had to make four or five really good saves and I made him our man-of-the-match," said

Farway manager Andrew Bailey.

Lyme Regis stayed top after beating reigning champions South Petherton 5-2.

Two early goals from Jason Hawker put Lyme in charge but Petherton hit back through Rich Hebditch and a Joe Bond own goal to draw level at half-time.

But after the break Julien Simier struck twice and Will Mowbray added the fifth for the club's sixth successive victory.

After four games without a win, Winsham hit back with a 5-1 hammering of West & Middle Chinnock with goals from Tom Symes (two), brother Sam Symes, Tom Stead and Henry Broom.

Improving Honiton hold in-form Chard to a deserved draw

Fresha Devon & Exeter League Division Two

Honiton Town 1
 Chard Town Reserves 1

MANAGER Gary Osborne is confident his Honiton Town side can start to climb the Division Two table after holding in-form Chard Town to a draw in their best result of the season.

Thrust into the hot seat after Paddy Thomas left for Sidmouth at the start of the season, Osborne has been playing catch-up as the new-look side struggled at the foot of the table, but this result suggests he is making progress.

"It has taken time since I took over the side because I have had to start from scratch but it looks as if we are coming good at last," said Osborne.

"Chard are a very good team. They pass the ball well and gave us a lot of problems. But I also think we gave them a few problems and a draw was a fair result from a very good game."

Tim Genders put Honiton into an early lead as he reacted quickest to goalkeeper Ben Kayes's long clearance and lobbed the advancing Chard keeper Matt Warfield.

The visitors, missing player-manager Darren Stewart, hit back immediately with Greg Channing finishing off a good move between Steve and Craig Every and Dan Aplin.

Both sides had chances after the break but the game petered out into a deserved stalemate.

"Although the lads put in bags of effort today we lacked cohesion and a cutting edge," said assistant manager Rich Evans.

"However, with the number of changes we had to make that is not surprising. Honiton belied their position in the league and a draw was in the circumstances a satisfactory result."
